MARK TWAIN'S ADVICE TO SER-ENADERS.

Don't stand right under the porch and howl, but get out in the middle of the street, or better still, on the other side of it. Distance lends enchantment to the sound. Don't let your screaming tenor soar an octave above all the balance of the chorus, and remain there, setting of the chorus, and remain there, setting everybody's teeth on edge for blocks around; and above all, don't let him sing a solo; probably there is nothing in the world so suggestive of serene contentment and perfect bliss as the spectacle of a calf chewing a dish-rag; but the nearest approach to it is your ready tenor, standing apart, in sickly attitude, with head thrown back and eyes uplifted to the moon, piping his distressattitude, with head thrown back and eyes applifted to the moon, piping his distressing solo. Now do not pass lightly over this matter, friend, but ponder it with that seriousness which its importance entitles it to. As soon as you start, gag your tenor, otherwise he will be letting of a seriousness. off a screech, every now and then, to let the people know he is around. Your amateur tenor is notoriously the most self-conceited of all God's creatures.

In the old church books of the First Baptist Church, in Stamford, Conn., is the following autouncement:

October 8, 1797—Died at Norwalk, Sybil Whitehead, aged 116 years, a member of this church, baptised October 1870, in the 99th year of her age. She lived in Norwalk, where she kept school in the system of the syst and for years frequently came on horse-back to Stamford, a distance of thirteen miles, to attend public worship, coming on Sunday and returning on Monday. The last time she came to Stamford was in May, 1870, at which time she was 109 years old. She then walked nine miles, and also returning on foot. She was navar married.

Governor Drx will pardon nothing for a year or two, but says: "Let's try hanging for a few years, and then if Stokes, oster and those rascals are not satis-fiel, we will consider some other plan."
